STAGE 2 EXCURSION TO TARONGA ZOO

Dear Parents and Caregivers,

This term during our Science lessons, students are learning how technology is used in food and fibre production in Australian agriculture. At Taronga Zoo, students will deepen their learning by investigating agricultural processes being demonstrated to raise animals for food, clothing and shelter.

We are able to take 2 parent helpers per class on the excursion. If you would be interested in being a parent helper please indicate that on the permission note below. We will notify those parents we take with us as soon as all notes are returned.

- VENUE: Taronga Zoo, Bradleys Head Rd. Mosman
- DATE: Tuesday, 31st March 2020
- ARRIVAL AT SCHOOL: 8.15am under the COLA outside the Library. Buses are leaving at 8.30am.
- TRAVEL: Students will travel by chartered bus to and from Taronga Zoo
- RETURN TO SCHOOL: 3.00pm – normal dismissal time of 3.25pm
- COST: $29 per student (this cost is included in the Term 1 invoice)
- REQUIREMENTS: Full School Uniform, hat, sunscreen, comfortable walking shoes and students will be required to bring their recess & lunch/drinks in a backpack.

Payment MUST be made and permission notes returned by Friday 14th March 2020
